

Growing Industries, the Vigorous STSP

Continuous Investment Rush

With its superior environment, the STSP, in recent years, has continuously attracted the investment and presence of leading domestic and international enterprises. In 2014, there were 20 new Park enterprises (among them, ten were startups) with an investment amount of NT$40.592 billion, 14 were built and 13 began mass production. By 2014, there were 196 approved Park enterprises indicating the continuous investment rush at the STSP.

Unit : the Number of Enterprises

Total Effective Number of Approved Enterprises by Year

Total Effective Number of Approved Enterprises by Industry by the End of 2014

Soaring Turnover, Stable Trade Volume

In 2014, the turnover of the STSP totaled NT$639.44 billion, a growth of 4% compared to that of 2013; the export volume reached to NT$415.2 billion and the import volume was NT$296 billion contributing to the overall trade volume of NT$711.2 billion, a slight decrease by 1.8% compared to that of 2013.

Import / Export Values by Year

Turnover by Year

2014 Turnover by Industry

Talent Gathering at the STSP

By the end of 2014, the number of Park employees reached to 78,992, and compared to the end of 2013, there was a growth of 11.4% with 8,096 more hired. The investment rush at the STSP also attracted many skilled professionals to work at the STSP.

Educational Background of the STSP Employees by the End of 2014

Number of the STSP Employees by Industry by the End of 2014

Number of the STSP Employees by Year

Nearly 90% Land Occupancy Rate

In 2014, nine new Park enterprises leased out 13.4 hectares while 33 new Park enterprises rented 38 factory units, showing the trust of enterprises in the overall investment environment of the STSP.

By the end of 2014, the land occupancy rate was 93.0% at the TSP and 73.4% at the KSP. On average, the land occupancy rate at the STSP was 87.5%.

Land Lease by the End of 2014