

■ The Commencement Ceremony of Southern Taiwan Science Park Bureau of Ministry of Science and Technology (March 5, 2014)

New Era after Restructuring

On January 22, the President of the ROC declared the enactment of the Organization Act of three Science Park Bureaus in Hsinchu, Central Taiwan, and Southern Taiwan under Ministry of Science and Technology. On March 3, in coordination with the establishment of Ministry of Science and Technology, the STSP Administration was restructured as the "Southern Taiwan Science Park Bureau" (STSPB); on March 5, the commencement ceremony and the inauguration ceremony of the Director-general were held together under the witness of friends around. The STSPB will continuously provide assistance to innovative development of Park industries so as to enhance Taiwan's international competitiveness.

The Award of 2014 Premium Friendly Architecture

With the professional software and hardware facilities and comfortable space for accessibility, the International Conference Room at the Administration Building of the KSP provides barrier-free entrance and exit as well as seating for the disabled and their accompanies. On December 19, plus the considerate planning of facilities and route movement, this conference room was awarded with 2014 Premium Friendly Architecture by Ministry of the Interior.

Job Fair at the STSP for the Happy Generation

On April 26, "2014 STSP Career Fair and Outstanding Labor Award" was organized with the participation of 51 Park enterprises and the initial matching rate of approximately 72%. On the same day, 69 outstanding labors were awarded, and Lin Yungchen from Sumika Technology was selected as the 2014 National Model Labor. At the site, outstanding Park enterprises that hired the disabled were also recognized as the encouragement for enterprises to fulfill their corporate social responsibilities (CSR).

■ Realize Your Dreams (April 26, 2014)

Venture Capital Matching

On May 27, by working with the Taiwan Venture Capital Association (TVCA) and PwC Taiwan, the STSPB organized the venture capital meeting and arranged the visits of the representatives of venture capital to eight enterprises including G&E Biotechnology Co., Ltd. to enable enterprises in need of capital to have better visibility and exchange platform and to open up the opportunities to cooperate with venture capital.

Promotion of E-documents for Environmental Protection and Carbon Reduction

The STSPB promoted E-documents exchanges with 20 Park enterprises and increased the on-line authorization and approval rate from 38% to 45% to gradually achieve the goal of paper-free documents and the vision of a green Science Park.

Healthy Life and LOHAS Space

On June 5 and November 15 respectively, two activities including a swimming competition and a fun activity as well as "Lurkers' Mission Top Secret" were organized at the Wellness Center of the TSP. These two activities were highly praised by the participants. The Center will continuously provide sound sports service functions for the STSP employees and nearby residents.

■ Commencement of Venture Capital Matching Seminar (May 27, 2014)

■ "Lurkers' Mission Top Secret" at the STSP (November 15, 2014)

■ The Swimming Competition and Fun Activity at the Wellness Center of the TSP (June 5, 2014)

Improved Amenity Functions at the KSP

Amenity services at the KSP now include financing, postal, and group catering. In order to improve amenity functions at the KSP, on June 11 Lujia Branch Store of 7-Eleven was introduced to the KSP.

Healthy and Safe STSP

September 20 marked the beginning of Month of Promoting Occupational Safety and Environmental Protection with the commencement ceremony held at the Wellness Center of the TSP. Besides activities that promoted parent-children health and environmental education, several seminars, forum, the drill exercises of Joint Emergency Response Organization at different sites and for large-scale emergencies were also organized to build a safe, healthy, and environmentally-friendly sustainable environment at the STSP. On October 30, the award ceremony for outstanding enterprises and personnel with excellent performance in occupational safety and health, environmental protection was held with the participation of 300 attendees.

■ Opening of 7-ELEVEN at the KSP (June 11, 2014)

■ Month of Promoting Occupational Safety and Parent-Children Health Promotion and Environmental Protection Events (September 20, 2014)

Comprehensive Life Hub Services

An Italian restaurant, Yidolar Restaurant, a light food house, a Café, a convenience store and a hair salon, an art studio, a music studio, a children educational institute, as well as a dental clinic were introduced into the TSP to provide considerate services. At the Mid-Autumn Festival, the BBQ activity was organized at night for a Life Hub vigor.

Newly Opened Park17

In December, 2014, the renovation of Park17 was completed. By adding a public seating area and a nursery room, more comprehensive services were offered to the STSP employees and customers. The newly opened restaurants including Licha Tea House, Lavender, and ibo combined style and creative dining provide diverse Taiwanese, Japanese, and Thai cuisines.

Introduction of Yidolar Restaurant at the Life Hub of the TSP (November 26, 2014)

Shiny and Comfortable Park17 at the TSP after Renovation

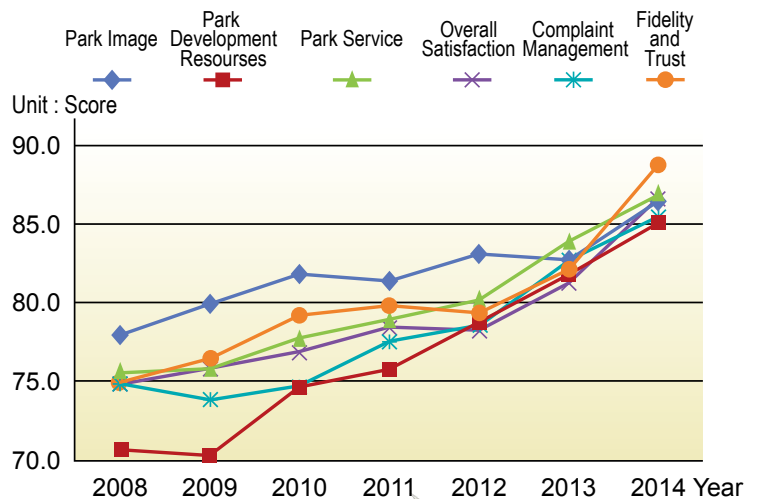

The B.B.Q. Event at Night at Life Hub of the TSP (August 28, 2014)

Upgraded Services

In pursuit of the service concept to look for excellence, the STSPB has continuously implemented the mentor system to serve Park enterprises with the designated personnel. Meanwhile, there were conducted visits to enterprises, the service quality circle, complaint handling, and the educational training on empathy to overall improve service quality provided to enterprises. In 2014, the STSP Park enterprises' overall satisfaction reached the historical high again showing the great supports and recognition to the STSPB given by Park enterprises.

In 2014, the first satisfaction survey among nearby residents of Science Parks was conducted. The STSP were ranked the highest among the three Science Parks with the score of 6.8 points.

The New Historical High Satisfaction of Park Enterprises