

Good Neighborhood Initiatives

As the public infrastructures are completed one after another, the employees of the STSP are also increasingly rapidly, resulting in the prosperous development of the nearby towns and villages. The Administration has been engaging in all kinds of good neighborhood initiatives to increase the interaction between the STSP workers and local residents.

Tainan Science Park

Books Giveaways

The Administration worked with Nanke Elementary School on March 2, 2004 to co-host books giveaways. The 7-11 in Park 17 within the STSP donated 3% of its turnover of one month to be the book procurement fund of Nanke Elementary School. The staff of the Administration also donated more than 200 books for elementary school readers to increase their reading resources.

STSP Healthy Walk

In order to introduce the new leisure sites within the STSP to the local residents and STSP employees, the Administration held a series of activities in the new landscape parks on September 25. A healthy walk connecting various sites was held for participants to walk on the path surrounded by flowers and trees. Participants walked along the Siraya Plaza, Siake Lake, Taoye Lake, Pusin Park, and Yingsi Lake to enjoy the beautiful views. These parks also attract many visitors during holidays for entertainment and nice photos.

Mid-Autumn Festival Concert

A Mid-Autumn Festival Concert was held at the largest landscape park Siraya Plaza on September 25, 2004. Several singers were invited into the concert. The concert attracted around 5 thousand people to enjoy the music in midsummer.

Police Party with the Community

On November 5, 2004, the Administration held a yearly Police Party with the Community and invited the STSP police forces, firemen, security guards, and members of the Security & Traffic Defense Union Committee. The party aimed to appreciate the contribution of these personnel in keeping the STSP safe and encourage them to keep up with the good work.

New Year Light Show Party

Over the recent years, the Administration has been hosting a New Year light show party. In 2004, the light show started from December 24, 2004 and ended on the Lantern Festival of the next year. The important sites and intersections within the STSP were all decorated with glittery light fittings. In the light show party, students from the Nanke Junior High School, Nanke Elementary School, and Nanke Kindergarten were invited to perform. Everyone gathered together joyfully to welcome the New Year.

> On Behalf of the Administration, Deputy Director-general, Mr. Wu, Donated the Books (March 2)

> Director-general, Dr. Tai (middle), and Representatives from the STSP Enterprises Announced the Opening of the Mid-Autumn Festival Concert (September 25)

> Representatives from the Administration, STSP Police, and Representatives from the STSP Enterprises were Singing (November 5)

> Director-general, Dr. Tai (right), and Deputy Director-general, Mr. Wu (middle), Put on Special Costumes and Joined the Guests (December 24)

> Chorus Performance by Nanke Junior High School (December 24)

Kaohsiung Science Park

Morning Jogging

The morning jogging event was held on May 2, 2004 and attracted more than 2 thousand local residents as well as Park employees. The activity showed that the Kaohsiung Science Park is going to take off and follow the government policy of revitalizing economy. The joggers also witnessed the construction results of the Park.

Mid-Autumn Festival Party

The Administration invited the local residents from Gangshan Township, Lujhu Township, and Yong'an Township to join the Mid-Autumn Festival Party on September 27, 2004. More than 5 thousand participants had a great time together in the party.

Year-end Party - Have Fun in the Kaohsiung Technology City

On December 18, 2004, the Administration hosted the year-end party at the lawn in front of the Kaohsiung Science Park office building. The Ju Percussion Group and other well-known groups were invited to perform. As the Christmas was at the corner, the Deputy Director-general of the Administration, Mr. Chen, and the Supervisor of Gangshan Township, Mr. Sen-fa Wu, were invited to light up the 12-meter high Christmas tree, irradiating the entire Kaohsiung Science Park. Free coffee was available in the party. The Supervisor of Lujhu Township also sponsored tomatoes of more than a hundred kilograms and attracted many local residents.

> Jogging in the Kaohsiung Science Park (May 2)

> Mid-Autumn Festival Party in the Kaohsiung Science Park (September 27)

> Year-end Party in the Kaohsiung Science Park (December 18) - Deputy Director-general, Mr. Chen, and the Supervisor of Gangshan Town, Mr. Wu, were invited to the Lighting Ceremony

> Year-end Party in the Kaohsiung Science Park (December 18)